

Patrick Ryan McDonough, 34

Patrick Ryan McDonough, 34, of Duxbury, passed away on April 21, 2017, surrounded by his loving family. Patrick was the beloved son of Charles F. and Ann-Marie E. (Kelly) Mc-Donough and stepson of Deborah McDonough. Patrick leaves his sister, Colleen Hirst and brother-in-law Patrick Hirst of Boston, and his grandmother Mary R. McDonough. He is predeceased by his grandparents Mary E. Kelly, William A. Kelly and Charles F. McDonough, Sr.

Patrick had a deep love of music and people which was evident in his career choices. He entered the entertainment industry as a professional disc jockey at Boston clubs and at functions. His weekly radio show "Where You Been?" showcasing his love for 90s alternative music became something of a local cult following. Patrick's desire to help others led to his enrollment in the radiation therapy program at Laboure College. His goal was to help others during their time of need and to use music therapy as well. Unfortunately, he became very ill before he could finish the program.

Patrick had a unique gift for making everyone he encountered, no matter how brief the moment, feel special just for being who they were. Ever since he was a little boy he liked to make people laugh and feel happy, even at his own expense, and that never changed through his last moments.

As anyone who ever had the pleasure to know him would agree, the world has lost someone very, very special.

Visiting hours will be held on Wednesday, April 26 from 3-8 p.m. at the MacDonald Funeral Home, 1755 Ocean St. (Rte. 139), Marshfield. A funeral Mass will be held on Thursday, April 27 at 10 a.m. at the Holy Family Church, 601 Tremont St., Duxbury. Burial will be in Mayflower Cemetery, Duxbury.

For online guestbook, driving directions and links to memorial charities, visit macdonaldfuneralhome.com.